Who Are We?

Ondokuz Mayıs University Vocational School of Justice, established in 2010, is a two-year educational institution that aims to train qualified and well-equipped intermediate staff for judicial bodies, notaries, and other relevant institutions.

What About Our Qualifications and Academic Vision?

The students are given an opportunity to develop their basic skills in the field of law and justice, preparing them for future business life. In line with these purposes, a student profile is created with an innovative understanding and equipped in the field. In our school, this innovative understanding starts with the basic knowledge of law and justice and is developed with individual talents and skills. Our Vocational School of Justice is committed to institutional and individual improvement and development.

What Facilities and Opportunities Do We Offer?

Our faculty has one library, laboratory, practice room, and workshop that our students can use.

What Are Our Programs and Job Opportunities?

After completing their two-year education, our students are employed in the position of assistant staff who provide information to people in the field of law and justice in both the public and private sectors. Among the areas where our students have the opportunity to work, there are editorial offices, bailiffs or assistants, related professional institutions, banks, and notary offices.

What Exchange Programs Do We Offer to Our Students?

Our school supports Erasmus, Farabi, and Mevlana student exchange programs, and education opportunities are provided in the countries and schools with which our University has agreements. Opportunities to improve language skills are provided through student exchange programs.

In What Ways Do We Support the Professional, Cultural, and Social Atmosphere?

There are two types of association structures classified into professional and social categories within the body of our University. Professional associations are specific to faculties, while social associations are of a general nature. In this context, OMU, with a total of 51 associations from photography to agriculture and cycling to chess, offers the institutional background necessary to create the atmosphere that will enable our students' study spaces and cultural development in the social field with 93 communities. Our students have carried out many activities and organizations with the associations. Ondokuz Mayıs University perceives its students as primary stakeholders and always supports new association proposals that will enable their development.
